A little matching. A happy monster.

Name the number on the monster's belly together.

Choose that many cookies from the nine on the page. Any choices work.

Circle your chosen cookies. Leave the extras for another monster.

Colour one ten-frame space for each cookie, starting at the top left.

For zero, circle no cookies and leave the whole ten-frame empty.

Trace the number at the bottom.

Circle first. Cut and play another day.

The circle activity needs only the page and a pencil or crayon.

For loose-piece play, ask a grown-up to cut the nine snack cards.

Offer one card at a time and move the chosen cards to the monster.

Do not cut the illustration or its mouth. Cutting is optional.

Choose one page at a time. Count slowly and stop at the target number.

Print A4 at 100% / actual size. Answer pages are included.

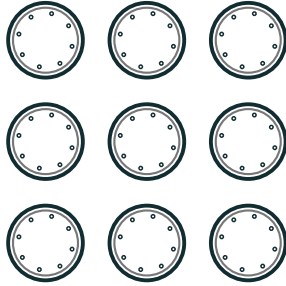

The Reel is accelerated. Printed play can be slow and playful.
